

CALLING NOTICE FOR THE 7th AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF COMMANDANTS (ACoC)
4-6 November 2013

Ref: Decisions of the 6th ACoC, Abuja, Nigeria

Introduction

1. Established in 2007, the African Conference of Commandants (ACoC) aims to enhance education through harmonization, interoperability, standardisation and co-operation amongst African Command and Staff Colleges. Their annual meeting is an event, rotating amongst member Colleges and is a forum for discussing issues of mutual interest pertaining to the education, training and development of senior officers.

The 7th ACoC Conference, Tripoli, Libya

2. The Command and Staff College, Libya, will host the 7th Conference in Tripoli from 4-6 November 2013 (ETA - 3 Nov and ETD - 7 Nov). The theme of the Conference is: "Quo Vadis (where to from here) – Development of Military Leaders for Africa." The Conference will consist of presentations by subject experts and presentations by member Colleges in order to learn from each other and to share best practice.

Hosting of the 7th ACoC

3. The Command and Staff College (CSC), Tripoli will be responsible for accommodation and feeding for all participants from for all participants including observers. However, ALL delegates will be responsible for their own travel arrangements. These include observers from Regional Economic Communities and Centres of Excellence. Detailed administrative instructions and a draft programme will be availed in due course.

4. For any further information or clarifications regarding the conference, kindly get in touch with any of the following persons:

Contact Details

Colonel Nuri Ahmed
College Coordinator
Command and Staff College, Tripoli
Libya
Tel: + 218 21 480 5050
Email: nuri36@yahoo.com

or Ms I. Ndungu
Coordinator, ACoC Secretariat
Institute for Security Studies, Pretoria
South Africa
Tel: + 27 12 346 9500
Email: indungu@issafrica.org

5. On behalf of the Government of Libya, I would like to warmly welcome each one of you to the 7th Conference of African Commandants and look forward to meaningful and fruitful deliberations. I welcome you!

Yours sincerely,

BRIG GEN. (ALI ELTIF)
COMMANDANT OF THE COMMAND AND STAFF COLLEGE, LIBYA

