The Conference

- i. Recalled the Decisions adopted by the 3rd ACoC held in Cairo, Egypt, and reiterated the need for an annual ACoC to be attended by all participating African Staff Colleges and to extend invitations to other African countries, particularly those from the Central African Region, as well as African Regional Peace-Keeping Training Centres / Centres of Excellence and other organisations that share ACoC's aspirations.
- ii. Acknowledged the initiatives taken by the 2nd ACoC to operationalise and develop the Decision on the Combined Joint African Exercises (CJAX) being undertaken at regional and Member State levels and noted with satisfaction the achievement of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and the Southern African Development Community in this regard.
- iii. Further acknowledged that the implementation of Decisions undertaken in previous Conferences is a continuing process despite limited resources.
- iv. Endorsed the work of ACoC as contained in the minutes of the 3rd ACoC and the subsequent discussions during the 3rd ACoC, and the conducting of 'Exercise Uhuru' in Gaborone, Lusaka and Pretoria and ECOWAS CJAX in Ghana and noted with gratitude the participation of the current ACoC Chair and other participating members in their different capacities.
- v. Further endorsed the process undertaken by the Command and Staff College, Libya to communicate with the Ministers of Defence and Chiefs of Defence Staff Meetings in seeking recognition from the African Union and encouraged all participating ACoC Staff Colleges to follow suit.

The Conference also

- vi. Stressed the objectives of ACoC to enhance harmonisation, interoperability, commonality, standardisation and cooperation between African Staff Colleges, which have been addressed in the 4th ACoC's theme : “Towards developing a Common, Continental Force for Better Efficiency in a Multinational Environment”.
- vii. Reiterated that ACoC should take full ownership of the direction it wants to take and should strive for full ownership of the processes and their consequences.
- viii. Noted with gratitude the significant attendance of the invited African countries for the 4th ACoC and extended sincere appreciation to the Senior Command and Staff College, Uganda for the successful hosting of the 4th ACoC.

- ix. Expressed its deepest appreciation to the outgoing Chair and for his outstanding contribution to the aspirations of ACoC and extended its heartfelt wishes to the current Chair.
- x. Further noted that the ECOWAS and EASBRIG were represented and encouraged other Regional Economic Communities to participate in future Conferences.
- xi. Noted with pride that concrete plans for establishing a Pan African Command and Staff College, made at previous Conferences have been taken seriously.
- xii. Acknowledged the on-going consultations amongst Southern African participating Member States to host the next Conference of Commandants and noted with pleasure the offer by the Armed Forces Command and Staff College, Jaji, Nigeria, to host the 6th Conference in 2012.
